

ASA DAVIS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 454.]

MAY 26, 1842.

Mr. C. MORRIS, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Asa Davis, report :

That said Davis states, under oath, that, on the 29th of March, 1813, while in the service of the United States, as a soldier, in building a block-house at Fort Meigs, he fell from the building, and so much injured his hip as to render him a cripple, and entirely disabled him from procuring a living from manual labor ever since.

John McWharton, captain of Davis's company, states, under oath, that said Davis was discharged on the 29th day of March, 1813, in consequence of being disabled, but does not know how he became so.

William F. Davis swears that he was a soldier in the army with Asa Davis, and was with him when he fell from the block-house ; that he was much injured in the hip ; that he brought him home with much difficulty ; and that he has been a cripple ever since.

Two physicians, McCully and Louther, certify, under oath, that they have examined said Davis, and that he is disabled as stated by him in his hip, and that his disability amounts to seven-eighths.

The committee believe that said Davis is entitled to relief, and therefore report a bill allowing him a pension of six dollars per month from and after the 4th day of March, 1842.

ASA DAVIS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 484.]

May 28, 1812.

Mr. C. Morris, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Asa Davis, report:

That said Davis states, under oath, that on the 29th of March, 1812, while in the service of the United States, as a soldier, in building a block-house at Fort Mifflin, he fell from the building, and so much injured his hip as to render him a cripple, and entirely disabled him from prosecuting a living from manual labor ever since.

John McWhorter, captain of Davis's company, states, under oath, that said Davis was discharged on the 29th day of March, 1812, in consequence of being disabled, but does not know how he became so.

William F. Davis swears that he was a soldier in the army with Asa Davis, and was with him when he fell from the block-house; that he was much injured in the hip; that he brought him home with much difficulty; and that he has been a cripple ever since.

Two physicians, McCully and Fowler, certify, under oath, that they have examined said Davis, and that he is disabled as stated by him in his bill, and that his disability amounts to seven-eighths.

The committee believe that said Davis is entitled to relief, and therefore report a bill allowing him a pension of six dollars per month from and after the 1st day of March, 1812.
